

I am living in a dream
That day you set across the sea
That day your boat sailed towards my empty shores
Not minding the bad Navigation.
If this was an equation
I can't solve the you + me thing I feel
I feel it, but can't see it
I feel the wonders, beauty, joy,
Love that sparkles out from your eyes .
You're a Diamond
Black and rare
I hunt for you only if this was a quest
You would be the treasure and I the hunter.
Your voice calms the uprising storm in me
I find peace when am confused
I find care when am down in thee
You are all I could think of, and now you pierce me deeper
Than knife to my skin, Black Diamond.
